

Title: HISTORICAL WARS AND MAJOR OPERATIONS OF INDIA

National Cadet Corps (NCC) â Official Directorate General Training Notes

1. INDO-PAK WAR 1947-48: First major conflict defending Jammu and Kashmir following tribal invasion, establishing the Ceasefire Line (now Line of Control).
2. SINO-INDIAN WAR 1962: High-altitude combat in Ladakh (Rezang La) and NEFA (Arunachal Pradesh), highlighting the immortal bravery of troops under extreme odds.
3. INDO-PAK WAR 1965: Armor battles in Punjab (Battle of Asal Uttar) and strategic capture of Haji Pir Pass.
4. 1971 LIBERATION WAR & KARGIL 1999: The 1971 War resulted in the historic surrender of 93,000 Pakistani troops and the birth of Bangladesh. In 1999, Operation Vijay reclaimed Pakistani-intruded icy heights in Kargil (Tiger Hill, Tololing) through legendary joint army-air assaults.
